Overview

Avery Desktop Range DR100 EcoFriendly Self Stacking Letter Tray (Black)

No need for mail or important internal documents to go astray.

If you are responsible for distributing mail to other colleagues or departments you can use this pigeon hole method to sort it.

There's no need to leave mail on people's desks, just slot it on the letter tray so everyone can have a tidy desk.

The letter trays are part of the Avery Desktop Range and come in four colours so you can match to your other office accessories.

The black tray is made from 100% recycled plastic.

- Flexible stacking system allows you to build as many trays as you need
- The trays can be stacked using risers, self-stacked straight or staggered, as well as stacking in reverse or at 90°
- The angled base ensures paper stays securely in place and aids easy retrieval of papers
- The Avery Desk Tidy can be fitted onto the top tray to provide extra off-desk storage
- Avery Black Desktop products are environmentally friendly - Manufactured from 100% post-consumer recycled polystyrene, they are also 100% recyclable
