Overview

Gino Ferrari Astor GF02 Backpack Polyester for 16 inch Laptops (Black)

The Gino Ferrari Astor laptop backpack is part of the 'Business Range' offering all the features and capabilities expected in a workplace environment with a refined and fashionable exterior.

Thanks to its durable blend of Nylon and Polyesters body material, the Astor is equipped to take on the most demanding environments whilst keeping your belongings protected.

The Astor laptop backpack was designed with practicality in mind, offering a wide range of useful features for everyday use such as expander sections, organiser sections and padded compartments for your laptop and iPad/tablet.

All this practicality wrapped in an elegant exterior, making sure it feels at home in professional business environments as well as the outdoors.

With multiple compartments, the Astor will help keep your belongings in an organised manner, with the aid of an organiser section in the front compartment as well as an easy-access top pocket with a phone sleeve to keep your essentials close at hand.

In the case of filling up the generous space offered within the Astor, it is equipped with an expander zip to increase the volume of the bag along with a padded airflow back rest as well as padded shoulder straps to ensure your comfort.

Thanks to the ergonomic top carry handle the Astor is easy to carry in even the tightest of situations, offering increased manoeuvrability.
