Overview

Freecom (1TB) mHDD USB 3.0 2.5 inch Slim Mobile Hard Drive (Silver) FRC56370

When you are on the move, you need the tools to keep your documents safe and easily available.

The Freecom mHDD Slim is the mobile hard drive that combines performance and style in one neat package.

The brushed metal enclosure is tough, lightweight and looks impressive next to any Mac or PC, and the slim design - just 0.9cm thick - makes it even more sleek and sophisticated.

Connect to a wide range of PCs and Macs with the two cables provided; USB Type-C and USB3.0.

Transfer files ultra-quickly with USB3.0 powered directly from the USB port on your PC.

No separate power supply is needed.

Nero Backup Essentials software is bundled with the drive to make backing up that much easier.

Schedule automatic backups to ensure that all important files are backed up regularly.
