Overview

Gino Ferrari Juno 16 inch Laptop Backpack Black GF501

The Gino Ferrari Juno laptop backpack represents a modern approach to business and fashion, combining all the latest trends with your practical needs in a sleek and eye catching exterior.

With an array of compartments, pockets and features, the Juno is equipped to be your companion in any situation.

The Gino Ferrari Juno backpack was designed to be versatile, offering a generous range of features making it a practical choice both for outdoor excursions and for in door professional settings.

Its elegant design with PU leather trim and understated red accents helps it blend into executive environments and thanks to it's durable nylon and polyester body material, can withstand the stress of heavy use.

With multiple compartments and pockets, the Juno offers large amounts of space to carry and organise all of your belongings safely with a Laptop compartment (up to 16 inches) and iPad/tablet compartment equipped with safety straps to store your valuables.

The front pocket offers an organiser section to keep all your essentials together, including a phone pocket and key clip, allowing for quick and easy access on the move.

Built for comfort, the Juno comes equipped with a padded airflow back rest and fully adjustable shoulder straps along with an ergonomic top carry handle.
