Overview

Avery L7671-25 White Video Face Label - Laser [Pack 300]

Just because we're in the new digital age doesn't mean it's always out with the old and in with the new.

Many people still have old video cassettes around the home or office.

Some of them may be treasured home videos of special family occasions or around the office it could be old training videos that are still used on courses.

It doesn't matter what's on them, what matters is that you can clearly identify each video to save you time looking for the right one.

These labels for video faces can be printed to clearly display the content.

- Clearly identify office and home media products quickly and easily
- Permanent Adhesive
- Easy to format using Avery Wizard software
- 76.2x46.4mm Ref L7671-25 [300 Labels]
