Overview

Avery L6013-20 Silver Silver Heavy Duty Labels [Pack 20]

When you work in a large company how do you know which computer belongs to which workstation? What if you have an office move? Can you be sure that everything will go back in the right place? Labelling your electrical equipment can solve the problem.

Computers and printers are expensive items though.

So you need high quality labels that won't spoil the electronic item.

These silver labels are just what you need.

It doesn't matter what size equipment you have, this A4 label can be cut down to size or used as a large label.

- Make a strong impression with professional, stylish and long lasting silver labels
- Ideal for marking your computer or property, labelling products or brochures for sale or display, creating a stylish label for folders, shelves and more
- Oil and dirt resistant, water and weatherproof, tear proof, UV resistant and unaffected by temperature changes between -20 to + 80 °C

- High quality, attractive silver finish
- Certified to meet the regulations of UL ("Underwriters Laboratories")
